DETAILED ACTION

Allowable Subject Matter

1. Prosecution on the merits of this application is reopened on claims 1, 2, 4, 5, and 7 considered unpatentable for the reasons indicated below:

The previously applied reference Zamierowski is considered to read on claim 1. A rejected based on the Zamierowski reference follows.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent, or on an international application by another who has fulfilled the requirements of paragraphs (1), (2), and (4) of section 371(c) of this title before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent.

The changes made to 35 U.S.C. 102(e) by the American Inventors Protection Act of 1999 (AIPA) and the Intellectual Property and High Technology Technical Amendments Act of 2002 do not apply when the reference is a U.S. patent resulting directly or indirectly from an international application filed before November 29, 2000. Therefore, the prior art date of the reference is determined under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) prior to the amendment by the AIPA (pre-AIPA 35 U.S.C. 102(e)).

3. Claims 1, 2, 4, 5, and 7 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Zamierowski. Zamierowski teaches a wound healing combination comprising a porous pad 12, 14 that is permeable to fluids and is injected with a plurality of wound healing factors and a suction tube 28 in fluid communication with the porous pad and a vacuum source. Zamierowski teaches a wound healing combination with a porous pad 12, 14 injected with a plurality of wound healing factors, such as growth factors, antibiotics, and analgesics (col. 4, lines 42-46). It is inherent that medical care that growth factors in wound healing comprise of a basic fibroblast growth factor and an antimicrobial agent comprise an antibiotic. As to the limitation of grafting wound healing factors into the pad, the fact that the wound healing factors are absorbed in the healing pad reads on this limitation. Zamierowski further discloses drapes 18, 22, 24 for sealing the pad.
